

DISCOVER SOUTH AUSTRALIA

14th to 25th November 2021

Personally escorted by Jacquy Turner

Discover the old-world charm of the German heritage-listed town of Hahndorf, including a tour of the home and studio of famous Australia artist, Sir Hans Heysen.

Marvel at the vast landscape of the Flinders Ranges and the mighty Wilpena Pound. We'll also visit the nearby towns of Quorn and Blinman.

Explore the best that Kangaroo Island has to offer, including spectacular scenery, inquisitive wildlife and delicious local produce.

Visit the quirky d'Arenberg Cube in McLaren Vale and enjoy a tasting while overlooking the vineyards.

Discover South Australia as we 'wine' our way from Flinders Chase to Flinders Ranges on this 12 day small group tour. We explore this diverse and wonderful state, from world class wineries, to the sparkling gem that is Kangaroo Island, the historic charm of Hahndorf and the expansiveness of Wilpena Pound.

Sunday 14 November Welcome to Adelaide (WD)

Our coach will depart Warragul for our flight to Adelaide. On arrival, we will be met and transferred to the ADINA APARTMENT HOTEL ADELAIDE TREASURY, or similar, for a three-night stay.

We shall enjoy a welcome drink at the hotel before making our way to a local restaurant for dinner.

Monday 15 November Adelaide- Hahndorf - Adelaide (B)

Venturing out of the city today we will head east to the beautiful Adelaide Hills. Stopping along the way, we'll take in the incredible views of Adelaide from the Mt Lofty Summit, the ideal spot for that perfect panoramic photo.

The Adelaide Hills is arguably South Australia's most charming region, with quaint towns, a proud history and a delicious food and wine scene waiting to be explored. Our destination is the charming German heritage-listed town of Hahndorf. Here, we will explore the enchanting main street that is lined with traditional German buildings housing boutiques, pubs, bakeries, and cafes. We'll also visit the home of one of Australia's greatest artists, Sir Hans Heysen, and tour his house and studio.

Making our way to the end of the main street, we'll visit the famed Beerenberg Farm to explore the strawberry fields and peruse their vast array of specialty products. A special highlight today will be a visit to Penfolds Magill Estate, nestled amongst the foothills of the Mount Lofty Ranges, for a tour of the original winery and a tasting of Grange.

Dinner tonight will be at your leisure.

Tuesday 16 November Adelaide (B)

Adelaide is renowned for its incredible food and wine scene and we will visit the food hub of the city this morning, the Adelaide Central Market. One of the largest undercover markets in the Southern Hemisphere, the Adelaide Central Market is home to over 70 traders offering a variety of fresh produce and gourmet goods.

We join the Adelaide locals for 'breakfast at the markets' followed by a private tour of the Adelaide Central Market.

From here, our tour of the city continues with a short tram ride to Adelaide's cultural boulevard North Terrace. Home to beautiful heritage architecture, wide footpaths and the State's Museum and Art Gallery, North Terrace is a wonder to explore. We return to our hotel with free time and dinner at your leisure

Wednesday 17 November Adelaide - Kangaroo Island (B L)

The jewel in South Australia's tourism crown, the raw and rugged Kangaroo Island awaits us today. Travelling to Cape Jervis, at the tip of the Fleurieu Peninsula, we board the ferry for a 45-minute ride to Kangaroo Island. Home to crystal clear waters, an abundance of wildlife, incredible natural wonders, and delicious local food, the Island is truly breathtaking.

With a vast array of small producers, today we'll savour local produce as we explore the Island, learn about the purest strain of Ligurian bees in the world, enjoy lunch overlooking lavender fields, tour an oyster farm and sample the wares of South Australia's first boutique gin distillery.

Tonight, we stay at the MERCURE KANGAROO ISLAND LODGE, American River, or similar, for our two-night stay.

Thursday 18 November Kangaroo Island (B L)

After breakfast, we depart for Albany and travel through Ravensthorpe where we stop to see how Kangaroo Island was hard hit by the summer 2020 bushfires.

Today, we spend the day on and off the tourist trail as we see how the Island is recovering. Beginning at Seal Bay, we'll have the opportunity to walk on the beach alongside a colony of endangered Australian sea lions, a unique species only found in South Australia and Western Australia.

Next, we continue to the Hanson Bay Wildlife Sanctuary. Here we will take a tour of the sanctuary, meeting many of the native species as we learn about how they were impacted by the bushfires.

We will then visit Flinders Chase National Park at the far end of the Island, home to the Remarkable Rocks, a beautiful arrangement of granite boulders sculpted naturally by wind, sea spray and rain over the course of 500 million years. Just a short drive away from the Rocks, we'll also visit Admiral's Arch, where playful fur-seals can often be spotted from the boardwalk swimming in the rock pools below.

We return to our hotel with dinner at your leisure.

Friday 19 November Kangaroo Island - McLaren Vale (B D)

Making our way back to the Fleurieu Peninsula today, we have the privilege of exploring this land of good food, rolling vineyards, pristine beaches and the world-renowned McLaren Vale wine region.

We board the ferry back to the mainland and travel through historic Willunga, meeting some local characters along the way. We'll then spend the afternoon exploring the picturesque McLaren Vale, tasting a drop or two of the region's finest wines.

We overnight at the SERAFINO, McLaren Vale, or similar. Dinner tonight is included.

Saturday 20 November McLaren Vale - Clare Valley (B D)

Before leaving the McLaren Vale region, we'll visit the impressive and quirky d'Arenberg Cube. This Rubik's cube like structure juts out of the d'Arenberg winery's vineyard and is home to a tasting room and museum.

We then head north to another of South Australia's award-winning wine regions, the Clare Valley. The region is not only known for its incredible Riesling, but for its strong heritage as well.

Our overnight accommodation tonight is the CLARE COUNTRY CLUB, or similar.

Sunday 21 November Clare Valley - Flinders Ranges (B D)

After a wine tasting in the Clare Valley later this morning, we continue towards the Flinders Ranges and see the historic Pichi Richi Railway Track that dates back to 1879 in the historic town of Quorn. We shall admire Quorn's beautiful heritage buildings and learn about the town's past as a vibrant railway hub for the region. You might recognise the streets of Quorn from films including Gallipoli, Wolf Creek and The Lighthorsemen.

Step back in time, into another world when we travel to the Flinders Ranges. Dusty red rocks jut out of the dry and arid landscape, as long roads lead to the epicentre of the region - mighty Wilpena Pound. With a laidback and welcoming country hospitality and stunning scenery made world famous by the watercolour paintings of Sir Hans Heysen, it can be hard to forget that the region is just a five-hour drive from the heart of Adelaide.

We'll reach our accommodation late this afternoon for a two-night stay at the WILPENA POUND RESORT, Flinders Ranges, or similar, located in the shadow of Wilpena Pound. Dinner will be at the restaurant.

Monday 22 November Flinders Ranges (BLD)

Arguably the Flinders Ranges' most iconic landmark, Wilpena Pound is a natural amphitheatre home to impressive gorges and an abundance of wildlife. The Adnyamathanha people have called the Flinders Ranges home for tens of thousands of years, with 'Wilpena' translating to 'Ikara' meaning 'meeting place'.

We will spend the remainder of our day exploring the incredible desert landscape and jagged, rugged gorges that surround us. We'll also visit South Australia's highest town, Blinman, a historic copper mining settlement dating back to 1859.

OPTIONAL EXCURSION: A scenic flight over Wilpena is a magical way to get a gauge on the incredible size and intricate rock formations of this Flinders Ranges icon, and this morning we have the option, weather permitting, to take part in a scenic flight (must have been pre-booked at time of tour booking). Enjoy extraordinary aerial views of Wilpena Pound on an incredible scenic flight. It is advisable to pre-book this optional tour prior to travel. Passenger's weight must be advised at time of booking. (30 minutes - $220pp)

We return to resort with time to relax before dinner at the hotel.

Tuesday 23 November Flinders Ranges - Burra - Barossa (B)

One of Australia's most well-known and highly regarded wine regions is calling our name today. The Barossa, home to some of the world's oldest vines, over 80 cellar doors and passionate and welcoming locals, is a must visit region for anyone who visits South Australia.

We discover South Australia's mining history on our way to the Barossa today, when we visit the town of Burra. A thriving copper mining hub in its heyday, Burra is home to fascinating remnants of its past including heritage buildings, abandoned mine dugouts, police quarters and more.

We'll arrive in the Barossa this afternoon and check into the BAROSSA WEINTAL, Barossa, or similar with the rest of the evening is at your leisure.

Wednesday 24 November Barossa - Adelaide (B FD)

The Barossa, home to some of the world's oldest vines, over 80 cellar doors and passionate and welcoming locals, is a must visit region for anyone who visits South Australia.

We will spend the day uncovering some gems of the Barossa, beginning at the family owned Yalumba Winery. Beautiful landscaped gardens surround the historic clock tower where we'll enjoy a tasting of the wine. We will also have the opportunity to explore the estate on a guided tour of the winery that was first established in 1849.

Next, we continue to Maggie Beer's Farm Shop for a private cooking demonstration. While here we'll sample Maggie's flagship and seasonal products and enjoy a wander around the property.

We then make our way down a palm-tree lined road to Seppeltsfield. Here, we'll explore the expansive grounds that are home to heritage buildings housing local vendors including the craft and design studio Jam Factory and the handmade skin and body care business Vasse Virgin.

The Centennial Cellar is a highlight at Seppeltsfield, home to an unbroken lineage of each vintage of tawny from the current year all the way back to the year 1878. We shall tour the Centennial Cellar and taste tawny directly from the barrel.

We'll make our way back to Adelaide this afternoon and return to the ADINA APARTMENT HOTEL, Adelaide Treasury, or similar. We end our visit to South Australia with farewell dinner together this evening.

Thursday 24 November Farewell Adelaide (B)

We farewell South Australia today and transfer to the airport for our flight to Melbourne. On arrival we shall be met and transferred back to Gippsland by coach.

GENERAL CONDUCT

Gippsland Travel reserves the right to remove a traveller from a tour if they are acting in a way that interferes with the general operation of the tour or compromises the general enjoyment of the tour by other travellers in any way

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY:

Subject to Australian Consumer Law, Gippsland Travel does not accept any liability in contract, tort or otherwise for any injury, damage, loss, delay, additional expense or inconvenience caused by a third-party supplier/s over who we have no direct control. Gippsland Travel is not liable for Force Majeure or any other event which is beyond our control or which is not preventable by us.

FORCE MAJEURE:

Force Majeure means the occurrence of an event that is beyond Gippsland Travel's reasonable control and which could not have been reasonably prevented by Gippsland Travel. Force majeure includes, but is not limited to: acts of God, accident, riots, war, terrorist act, epidemic, pandemic, quarantine, outbreaks of infectious disease or any other public health crisis, civil commotion, breakdown of communication facilities, natural catastrophes and natural disasters (including but not limited to flooding, fire, earthquake, landslide), adverse weather conditions, high or low water levels; government directed travel restrictions or omissions, changes in laws or regulations, national strikes, explosion, generalised lack of availability of raw materials or energy, nuclear or other industrial accident causing environmental pollution or contamination; change in law, meaning, enactment, amendment (including repeal) in the law or administration of any law in Australia or any jurisdiction or territory relevant to the booking contract, which includes changes in statute, regulation, determination, by-law, declaration, licence and the common law as applicable from time to time.

For the avoidance of doubt, Force Majeure shall not include (a) financial distress nor inability of either party to make a profit or avoid a financial loss, (b) changes in market prices or conditions, or (c) a party's financial inability to perform its obligations hereunder.

In the event that a Force Majeure is declared, the customer will be bound by the third-party supplier/s Terms and Conditions, if applicable.

GOVERNING LAW

These booking conditions are governed by the law in force in Victoria, Australia.

TERMINATION OF BOOKING CONTRACT OR CHANGE OF TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS DUE TO FORCE MAJEURE

If Gippsland Travel, in its reasonable opinion, considers that any Force Majeure event prevents Gippsland Travel (whether directly or through its employees, contractors, subcontractors and agents) from lawfully or safely providing any products or services subject of the booking contract with you, Gippsland Travel may immediately by written notice; (a) terminate the booking contract (in whole or part of); or (b) change your travel arrangements as reasonably practicable to ensure your safety and invoice for any additional costs.

If you are eligible for a refund once a booking has been cancelled, the balance less any non-refundable amounts will be forwarded to you once received by Gippsland Travel from the third-party supplier/s.

Gippsland Travel is not responsible for any delays of refunds from the third-party supplier/s. Refunds from third party supplier/s can take in excess of 6 weeks. Refunds will be processed as per original form of payment.

Travel insurance policies may provide cover for cancellation fees subject to their terms and conditions.
