ITALY with a difference, MALTA & GREEK ISLANDS

Sunday 12 June to Sunday 10 July 2022

Personally escorted by Jacquie Turner

Starting in Bologna, we explore the less visited regions of Italy, along the Adriatic Sea to the heel of the boot, the Salento Peninsula. Taking in Bologna, Ascoli Piceno, Ostuni and Lecce before heading west to Matera, a Basilicata's jewel, a town built on carved caves. We reach the rugged Amalfi Coast with a visit to Naples.

Malta is a history-rich small archipelago in the Mediterranean Sea and one of the smallest countries in Europe. There is glorious variety in its small archipelago; prehistoric temples, fossil-studded cliffs, hidden coves, and a history of remarkable intensity.

Experience a Greek Islands cruise combining amazing destinations on a mega yacht with professional crew and exquisite cuisine. Each day, discover a new port of call, a hidden cove with crystal blue waters, a glimpse of ancient history and rich cultural diversity.

Sunday, 12 June

DEPART AUSTRALIA

We depart Gippsland for our evening flight from Melbourne to Bologna via Dubai. Departures are available from other Australian cities.

Monday 13 & Tuesday 14 June

BOLOGNA, ITALY

(B B L D)

We arrive in Bologna on Monday 14 June and will be met and transferred to our hotel, the GRAND HOTEL MAJESTIC, or similar, where we shall stay for the next two nights.

During the next couple of days our sightseeing will include walking tour of the historic centre, winding through the beaten paths frequented mostly by locals. From the Church of San Petronio in Piazza Maggiore to the Asinelli Towers, from the Ghetto to the hidden “Venetian canals” of Bologna, we will discover traditions, habits and anecdotes of this amazing city. We shall also visit the Sanctuary of Madonna di san Luca for views of the city. A highlight will be a visit to a local village.

Wednesday, 15 June

ASCOLI PICENO

(B D)

After breakfast we drive to Ravenna, known for the colorful mosaics adorning many of its central buildings, like the octagonal Basilica di San Vitale, the 6th-century Basilica di Sant'Apollinare Nuovo and the cross-shaped Mausoleo di Galla Placidia

We then head south along the coast to Ascoli Piceno, that lies at the confluence of the Tronto and Castellano rivers in the Le Marche region. Called the "City of Travertine" for the milk and honey piazza and facades, Ascoli's historic centre is an architectural gem.

Once home to over 200 spindly towers, almost 50 remain. The public squares clatter with activity, especially in the evenings, as folks settle in for a glass of wine, always with little offerings of food, or an Anisetta from the famous Anisetta Meletti, a place that's been pouring since 1870.

On arrival we shall check in to the PALAZZO DEL MERCANTI, or similar. Dinner tonight is included.

Thursday 16 Friday 17 &amp; Saturday 18 June	OSTUNI	(B B B L D D)
---	---------------	----------------------

We depart Ascoli Piceno and head further south, right down into the “heel” of Italy and the Puglia region. Our hotel in Ostuni will be the HOTEL RELAIS SANT'ELIGIO, or similar, for the next three nights.

During our time here, we will visit Alborobello, famous for its trulli, whitewashed stone huts with conical roofs. These limestone dwelling are found in the southern region of Puglia and are remarkable examples of drywall (mortarless) construction, a prehistoric building technique still in use in this region.

We shall also explore Bari, a port city on the Adriatic Sea, and the capital of southern Italy’s Puglia region. Its mazelike old town, Barivecchia, occupies a headland between two harbors. Surrounded by narrow streets, the 11th-century Basilica di San Nicola, a key pilgrimage site, holds some of St. Nicholas’ remains.

Along with a cooking class at a local olive farm, we shall visit the picturesque fishing village of Polignano a Mare and spend time at Castel del Monte. When the Emperor Frederick II built this castle near Bari in the 13th century, he imbued it with symbolic significance, as reflected in the location, the mathematical and astronomical precision of the layout and the perfectly regular shape.

Sunday 19 &amp; Monday 20 June	LECCE	(B B D)

Today we drive to Lecce with a detour to visit the charming harbour town of Otranto. Our accommodation for the next two nights will be at the RISORGIMENTO RESORT, or similar.

Bequeathed with a generous stash of baroque buildings by its 17th-century architects, the city has a completeness and homogeneity that other southern Italian metropolises lack. Indeed, so distinctive is Lecce’s architecture that it has acquired its own moniker, barocco leccese (Lecce baroque), an expressive and hugely decorative incarnation of the genre replete with gargoyles, asparagus columns and cavorting gremlins.

We will make up our own minds on a walking tour and learn all about the craft of papier mache which Lecce is famous for.

Tuesday 21 & Wednesday 22 June    MATERA

(B B D)

We depart the “heel” of Italy and head to Matera.

Matera is a fabulous troglodyte town of prehistoric grottoes, cave tabernacles, abandoned hovels and Renaissance houses, all excavated into the luminous limestone tufa. The rock-cut cave dwellings known as the SASSI, date back to Byzantine times. With the help of a locally grown expert, we will learn the stories of old and new Matera. We discover an ancient cave dwelling which tells a tale of poverty, hardship and struggle, whose history is best immortalized in writer Carlo Levi’s superb book “Christ stopped at Eboli”, comparing the Sassi to Dante’s Inferno. Today Matera contains some 3000 habitable caves. We visit a cave church-featuring medieval frescoes with their own legends.

There will be time at leisure to enjoy beautiful Matera. Our accommodation in Matera for two nights will be at the PALAZZO GATTINI, or similar.

Thursday 23, Friday 24, Saturday 25 June    NAPLES

This morning we drive to Naples with a visit to the amazing site of Pompeii on the way. Pompeii is a preserved ancient Roman city in Campania at the southeastern base of Mount Vesuvius. It was built on a spur formed by a prehistoric lava flow to the north of the mouth of the Sarnus (modern Sarno) River. Pompeii was destroyed, together with Herculaneum, Stabiae, Torre Annunziata, and other communities, by the violent eruption of Mount Vesuvius in 79 CE.

The circumstances of their destruction preserved their remains as a unique document of Greco-Roman life. Pompeii, Herculaneum, and Torre Annunziata were collectively designated a UNESCO World Heritage site in 1997.

On arrival in Naples we will check in to the GRAND HOTEL SANTA LUCIA, or similar.

During our time in Naples we will have a City tour of Naples and weather permitting, a day trip to Ischia, a volcanic island in the Gulf of Naples. It's known for its mineral-rich thermal waters. Hot springs bubble up at Maronti Beach, in the south. Roman remains lie beneath the sea floor at Cartaromana Beach. The beach has views of medieval Aragonese Castle, linked to Ischia by a stone bridge. Nearby the 18th-century Palazzo dell'Orologio houses the Sea Museum, devoted to Ischia's fishing tradition.

Sunday 26 Monday 27 Tuesday 28 Wednesday 29 June MALTA (B B B B L L L D D)

We say “arrivederci” to Italy as we fly to Malta. On arrival we shall be met and transferred to the GRAND HOTEL EXCELSIOR, or similar, where we shall stay for the next four nights. Welcome to the Maltese Islands.

We will start with a guided tour through the vibrant streets of Valletta. In the alleys of Valletta, we will discover the beauty and charm of the fortified city built by the Knights in 1566. We will enjoy fabulous views of the Grand Harbour and visit St John’s Co-Cathedral including the Caravaggio masterpieces in the Oratory.

We will discover the Island of Gozo, on a full day tour with highlights being a traditional ‘luzzu’ cruise of the inland sea; we see the Xwejini Salt Pans, protruding out of the sea; a farm visit including wine and local food products tastings; and lunch at transformed little cottage with panoramic views of Mgarr Harbor, Fort Chambrey and the three sister islands.

Our full day ‘Malta Sightseeing’ will include the Megalithic Temples and Blue Grotto. We spend time in Mdina, the old capital city.. We shall also visit the Dingli Cliffs, part of the highest land mass in Malta, some 200 metres above sea level, with the Parish Dome dominating the skyline and quaint village with a perpendicular plunge in the Mediterranean Sea.

This Mediterranean paradise continues to fascinate food lovers thanks to its wide variety of traditional and local cuisines, which are influenced by other international kitchens as well, like the Italian as well as the North African one.

Thursday 30 June ATHENS (B D)

Today we will have some time to explore Malta further before it it time to transfer to the airport for our flight to Athens. On arrival at the Athens Airport (El Venezelou) we shall check into the SOFITEL AIRPORT HOTEL, or similar, for an overnight stay prior to boarding our yacht tomorrow.
