

GIPPSLAND TRAVEL

APRIL 2022

Travel News

After two very challenging years, it is so exciting to see people happy to start travelling further afield again.

To make the most of our local destinations we have been doing some popular regional tours but I must say how pleased I was to finally board a plane for our recent escorted tour to Norfolk Island. While short in length, our time away was packed with exploration and happy socialising and I think it was a great reminder of the rich memories we build from travelling to new destinations.

Full Retail Travel Service

Gippsland Travel has built a formidable reputation for running wonderful escorted tours but we are also an award-winning travel agency that looks after independent travel requirements arranging every aspect of an itinerary whether it is in our own region or absolutely anywhere in the world.

These days with airlines and countries regularly changing their COVID-19 rules often at short notice, we can assist with any changes imposed even after you have departed to make sure your trip runs as smoothly as possible. If you want your travel arrangements to be as trouble-free as possible, please talk to us before booking – you can't put a price on peace of mind, especially when you are overseas.

Staff News

Congratulations to Brianna and Rob on the safe arrival of their new baby girl Aria, a sweet little sister for Ava.

We are pleased to welcome Deirdre Green to the Gippsland Travel team. Deirdre is joining us as another friendly voice and face at our reception desk while Brianna is on maternity leave.

Upcoming Tours

I have always enjoyed escorting groups and am really looking forward to this year's first international tour to Italy, Malta and the Greek Island in June.

We still have a few seats on our UK and Ireland tour departing at the end of July. I have included a brief overview of the tour in this newsletter but please contact the office for full details.

All of us at Gippsland Travel look forward to helping you with all of your travel inquiries wherever you want to go.

Until then,
Jacquey

Discovering Legendary UK & Ireland

Having been educated and spending my early working life in the UK, this part of the world is particularly dear to my heart. Departing in late July, we will take four weeks to explore the historic beauty of England, Scotland and Ireland visiting the best-known landmarks as well as wandering away from the normal tourist route.

Staying in country house hotels and visiting smaller villages, we will travel down all sorts of country lanes with our wonderful local guide Roy, who is a great favourite with Gippsland Travel groups. Full tour details on our website.

If you are ready for a longed for trip where everything is taken care of for you, why not join me on this marvellous tour while seats are still available.
